JOHNSON & BROTHER, 411 and 413 State street, corner of Court.

The name Byzantine was first applied to a style of architecture developed in the Byzantine Empire about A. D. 300.

Its leading forms are the Round Arch, the Dome, the Pillar, the Circle and the Cross Technology. The Mosque of St. Sophia, Constantinople, and the church of St. Marks, Venice, are prominent examples of Byzantine Architecture.

One of the most progressive American manufacturers of carpet fabrics has happily combined many of the beautiful forms peculiar to the Byzantine era in the production of a new kind of Rugs, which are properly called the "Byzantine."

The purity of the designs, and absence of offensive colorings, will commend them to all persons of good taste.

Associated with straw mattings in the furnishing of a chamber, library or dining com, the effect is charming beyond that of any combination heretofore presented.

We now have in stock a fine variety of styles, in sizes from the small mat up the largest carpet squares, together with a large and elegant line of Turkish and Oriental Rugs.

A tug was sent from the city to take off the passengers, and arrived safely in port at 2 o'clock this morning. The fog was the thickest for years. The Neatherbell is a total wreck. She had considerable freight on board and nothing was saved. There was no insur-ance. The vessel was built in 1885 for the Island Steam Navigation company and was a wooden boat of 202 tons gross

LONDON, Nov. 13 .- A St. Petersburg police discovered that a conspiracy was under way there. They found the conspirators in St. Petersburg were only a part of a very numerous band, the head-which spread to all the principal cities of the empire.

The object of the conspiracy was the organization of a movement having for its end the creation of a representative assembly—an object which has been the dream of many Russians for years. Sixty members of the nobility and of the upper and middle classes who are charged with complicity in the conspiracy have been arrested. The discovery of the plot and the arrest of so many subjects has caused a sensation in Russia.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13 .- The following as issued this afternoon: It is a very glad incident of the marvellous prosperity which has crowned the year now wing to a close that its helpful and reassuring touch has been felt by all our people. It has been as wide as our country and so special that every me has felt its comforting influence. It is too great to be the work of man's power and too particular to be the device of his mind. To God, the beneficent and the all-wise, who nakes the labors of men to be fruitful, redeems their losses by his grace, and the measure of whose giving is as much beyond the thoughts of man as it is beyond his deserts the praise and gratitude of the people of this favored nation are Now, therefore, I. Benjamin Harrison, president of the United States of America, do hereby ent, to be a day of joyful thanksgiving to God for the preservation of those institutions of civil and religious liberty, which he gave our fathers the wisdom to devise and establish, and us the courage to preserve. Among the appro-priate observances of the day are rest from toil, worship in the public congregation, the renewal of family ties about our American firesides and houghtful helpfulness towards those who suffer lack of the body of the spirit. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington this 13th day of November, in the year of our Lord, 1831, and of the independence of the United States the 116th.

Thatcher Graves will be tried in Denver on the 24th inst., left this city to-night for New York, having occupied two days in the examination of witnesses from Connecticut and this state to appear for the prosecution. Superintendent Cornish of the Boston Pinkerton agency has been in consultation with them, and as the result of their investigation it is said the government will introduce forty witnesses. Considerable additional testimony has been btained from Danielsonville and neighboring towns in Connecticut which, it is claimed, reflects seriously upon Dr. Graves' reputation while residing there, compromising information.

The British admiralty is much excited over the growing record of defects in great guns on English warships. Five vessels have already been officially declared to be carrying unreliable guns. Generally the heaviest weapons are becoming distrusted, and the admiralty has ordered that a number of them be taken to the ordnance works to be strengthened. Meanwhile the 75-ton guns of the French fleet are acting based upon allegations of malpractice. District Attorney Stevens says that the trial will probably occupy four weeks and that Judge A. J. Rising, one of the oldest and most prominent jurists in the west, will preside over the trial. The connsel for the government will include District Attorney Stevens, Judge Belford and Thomas Ward, jr., chief assistant in the district attorney's department, while Dr. draves has retained the law firm of Wells Macon & Furman. Regular Troops Reported to Have Met and Routed Garza's Band, NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 13.—The Times emocrat's Laredo (Tex.) dispatch says: Great activity has been noticed in military circles on both sides of the river for two days past. No definite news could then be gathered as to the cause, but now it is known that Catarino Garza, the revoutionist, crossed into Mexico a few days ago and, entering a small hamlet near Guerrero with a few men, made a revolu-tionary speech, gathered a few more fol-lowers and left the town. Troops at once pursued him, the cavalry from Nuevo La-redo leaving day before yesterday for the scene, and yesterday afternoon the United States cavalry from Laredo under Captain Hardee went down the river.

"A telegram was received by Colonel Corron, commander of the Mexican troops in Nuevo Laredo, to the effect that at 5 o'clock Wednesday the Mexican regulars met Garza and his followers at Laguna Negra, some fifteen miles from Guerrero, routed them and were still in pursuit of the remnants of the band. Some time ago the city council passed an ordinance reducing the price of gas from $1 to 60c. a thousand. Judge Jackson to-day overruled the demurrer and granted an injunction against the city. He held that the city had no right to fix the price of an article of which it was a consumer, and that the action of the council world and that the action of the council would impair the validity of a contract made with the gas company in 1846. Fire in a Children's Hospital. Sr. Louis, Nov. 13 .- Fire started in the St. Louis Children's hospital at 6 o'clock this morning. There were forty-two children in the building, who were rescued.
